

Underclassmen and Summer Enrichment Opportunities
Name	Deadline	Additional Information
University of Virginia- Saturday and Summer Enrichment Program	Tuesday, February 15, 2011	Please visit http://curry.virginia.edu/sep for information and online applications for this program for 5th-11th grade students . This program's mission is to engage gifted and/or high ability students in high quality learning experiences designed to cultivate interest and potential in a wide variety of fields and disciplines.
Radford university- College of Science and Technology HS/CC Programming Competition 2011	Friday, February 25, 2011	Radford University will be hosting three programming competitions on campus March 25-26, 2011. These events are designed to promote software development skills. A $3000 scholarship will be awarded to each member of the winning team. Please visit https://php.radford.edu/~cst/contests/ for registration forms and rules.
VCU School of Allied Health Professions- Physical Therapy Career Exploration Program	Friday, April 01, 2011	The program is a two-week summer day program for 10th-12th graders in Richmond and the surrounding counties from July 11, 2011- July 22, 2011. There is no cost for the program. Student must have a 2.75 minimum GPA, two letters of recommendation and a personal statement of interest. For more information visit www.dhsd.vcu.edu
Virginia State Parks Youth Conservation Corps- Summer Jobs for Kids 14 to 17	Wednesday, April 13, 2011	This summer experience is for youth age 14 to 17 to carry out a wide variety of conservation activities at our beautiful Virginia state Parks. There are a variety of projects completed during this program. Apply online at www.dcr.virginia.gov/state_parks/ycc .

C-Tech2 Computers and Technology at Virginia Tech	Friday, April 15, 2011	Virginia Tech's College of Engineering invites students to participate in C-Tech2. Participants will spend the majority of their time involved in hands-on activities designed to increase their interest in and knowledge of applications of engineering, math, and science to real world situations. The target population for the program is rising junior and senior high school girls. For additional information and application instructions, visit www.eng.vt.edu/ctech2 .
Museum Leaders in Training	Thursday, April 21, 2011	This program is a competitive, year-long, after-school leadership and community service program, free and open to all teens in grades 8-12. For more information, please visit www.vmfa.museum .
Pre-Collegiate Summer Program in Early American History- The College of William and Mary	Friday, April 22, 2011	This opportunity offers a selection between two courses with the possibility of earning four college credits through The College of William and Mary. Students applying should be highly-motivated with a deep commitment to learning about the past, who believe they have excellent analytical ability, whose writing skills are sound, and who thrive in a competitive, though structured, discussion class format. Please visit www.wm.edu/niahd for additional information and application forms.
Junior Statesmen Foundation Summer School	Wednesday, April 27, 2011	This summer school experience will be held at Georgetown University during two different sessions. More information and the application is available at http://jsa.org/summer/apply . Scholarships are available.

University of Virginia- Leadership on the Lawn	Sunday, May 01, 2011	Strengthen your leadership skills while living the UVA student experience. Live in dorms, eat in dining halls, meet new friends, and become a better leader with help from UVA faculty and students. For program highlights and application materials, visit leadershiponthelawn.com .
PROMYS- Program in Mathematics for Young Scientists	Monday, May 30, 2011	From July 4 to August 13, 2011, PROMYS will offer an intensive experience in creative mathematical exploration to approximately 65 ambitious high school students with an exceptionally strong interest in mathematics. Applications are available online at www.promys.org .
Carleton Liberal Arts Experience	Wednesday, June 15, 2011	This is a week long summer program designed to introduce the strengths of a liberal arts education to college-bound students. If you are interested in being nominated for this program, please see Mrs. Poland. Please visit www.carleton.edu/summer/CLAE for more information.
Virginia Aerospace Science and Technology Scholars	Not listed	Criteria for this program are as follows: high school juniors with an interest in science, technology, engineering or math, Virginia and US residents, minimum GPA of a 2.7, be at least 16 years old, and have internet and email access to complete online assignments. Applications can be found at www.vasts.spacegrant.org

Randolph College Book Award	Not listed	This is awarded to a high school junior who is academically strong and possesses leadership potential. The Book Award is to acknowledge an outstanding high school student, and will include a bookplate affixed on the inside cover. Any student awarded the Book Award will automatically be considered for a merit scholarship of $5000 per year if he/she applies and is accepted for admission into the College. Please see Mrs. Poland if you are interested in this opportunity.
Volunteer Services at Carilion Clinic	Not listed	Youth must be 14 years old to volunteer at Carilion. The program runs from early June to mid-August. To apply for the program, students can go to www.carilionclinic.org and click on the "Volunteer" tab at the top of the page. If you have any questions, you may call Volunteer Services at (540)981-7819.
Landry Summer Camps	Not listed	The Landry Summer Camps are held at Lees-McRae College in North Carolina for rising 8th-12th graders are awarding $1000 scholarships to ten students to attend our summer academic and arts camps. Please visit www.LandrySummerCamps.com/scholar.html for additional information.
Hollinsummer	Not listed	This summer program takes place at Hollins University July 10-22. Rising high school 9th-12th women take two noncredit classes during the week and participate in field trips and other activities on the weekend. Visit the Hollins University website then click on "Summer Programs" for additional information and for an application.